

ORDER ON QUANTUM OF SENTENCE.

Present: Complainant with counsel Sh. Pardeep Sharma, Law Officer.

Convicts in person with counsel Sh. Jasvir Singh Chauhan, Advocate.

ORDER:-

1. The convicts state that they have got the impugned act condoned from the authorities of PPCB and that vide notification Ex.D3, their obtaining of prior environmental clearance has been dispensed with and as per letter Ex.D1, they have been granted further extension.

12. The above said plea of the accused has been met with in the detailed judgment. No other plea has been raised.

13. The violation of Environment Acts is a grave offence. A series of legislations have been enacted to protect the Environment and to protect any harm to the lives and health of the public at large. The right to life ensurines within itself the right to live in a proper and healthy environment. The directors and manager of the industrial establishments are burdened with an added obligation to take care that their acts do not cause any harm to the lives of other persons. They are expected to conduct their expansionary business in a manner that the balance between the demands of the Environment and the public at large is maintained in a critical manner.

14. In the instant case, the convicts have failed to do so.

15. The acts of the convicts demand strict punishment in view of the discussion made above. Convicts No.2 to 4 in their individual capacity
